

ABA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Extinction involves:

- A) Discontinuing the reinforcement that has been maintaining a behavior
- B) Delivering punishment after every occurrence of the target behavior
- C) Reinforcing the absence of a behavior
- D) Blocking access to the behavior physically

2. Stimulus fading involves:

- A) Gradually changing the physical properties of a stimulus while maintaining stimulus control
- B) Removing consequences for a target behavior
- C) Increasing the delay between SD and prompt
- D) Reinforcing successive approximations to a target

3. What is 'tact extension'?

- A) Applying a tact to a novel stimulus that shares properties with the trained stimulus
- B) Reinforcing a mand with unrelated reinforcement
- C) Using the echoic to expand vocabulary
- D) Chaining multiple intraverbals together

4. Stimulus control refers to:

- A) A behavior occurring more frequently in the presence of a specific antecedent stimulus
- B) The suppression of behavior by a punishing stimulus
- C) The reinforcement of behavior across all conditions
- D) The physical guidance used to prompt a response

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More ABA Questions and Answers FREE, ABA Online Prep Training,
ABA Exam, ABA Study Guide, ABA Flashcards, ABA Quizzes visit:

ABA Practice Test