

ACTAR Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Why is drag factor important?

- A) It determines noise level
- B) It controls airbag deployment
- C) It influences deceleration rate
- D) It measures fuel usage

2. What is yaw in vehicle dynamics?

- A) Vertical bounce
- B) Forward acceleration
- C) Rotation about vertical axis
- D) Side mirror movement

3. Why is mass distribution crucial?

- A) To improve exhaust flow
- B) For tire shine
- C) To ensure handling and balance
- D) For loud engine sounds

4. Why is point of impact important?

- A) To find insurance policy
- B) To calculate fuel loss
- C) To establish vehicle contact location
- D) To estimate horn loudness

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-C 4-C

For More ACTAR Questions and Answers FREE, ACTAR Online Prep Training, ACTAR Exam, ACTAR Study Guide, ACTAR Flashcards, ACTAR Quizzes visit:

ACTAR Practice Test