

CAHIMS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How should errors be handled in health promotion?

- A) Conceal errors to avoid liability
- B) Report errors through proper channels, take corrective action, and communicate with affected patients
- C) Document errors only if someone notices
- D) Blame the error on system failures

2. In project management, what is the 'critical path'?

- A) The most expensive sequence of tasks in the project
- B) The longest sequence of dependent tasks that determines the minimum project duration
- C) The list of highest-priority risks in the risk register
- D) The initial project approval process through governance committees

3. How should errors be handled in patient assessment?

- A) Conceal errors to avoid liability
- B) Report errors through proper channels, take corrective action, and communicate with affected patients
- C) Document errors only if someone notices
- D) Blame the error on system failures

4. How should errors be handled in quality improvement?

- A) Conceal errors to avoid liability
- B) Report errors through proper channels, take corrective action, and communicate with affected patients
- C) Document errors only if someone notices
- D) Blame the error on system failures

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More CAHIMS Questions and Answers FREE, CAHIMS Online Prep Training, CAHIMS Exam, CAHIMS Study Guide, CAHIMS Flashcards, CAHIMS Quizzes visit:

CAHIMS Practice Test