

CCST Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CVSS measure?

- A) Financial cost of fixing a vulnerability
- B) Severity of a vulnerability scored from 0 to 10 based on exploitability and impact
- C) Number of affected systems
- D) Time required to patch

2. What is a CVE identifier?

- A) A proprietary antivirus vendor score
- B) A standardized unique identifier for publicly known vulnerabilities for consistent reference
- C) A type of malware classification
- D) A protocol for sharing vulnerability data

3. What is a zero-day vulnerability?

- A) A vulnerability patched within one day
- B) A vulnerability that has existed for zero days
- C) A previously unknown vulnerability with no available patch
- D) A vulnerability affecting day-zero firmware

4. Which statement about NTP is true?

- A) A stratum 2 NTP server is directly attached to an authoritative time source.
- B) NTP authentication is disabled by default.
- C) NTP must be configured to synchronize with one of a handful of atomic clocks available on the internet.
- D) You must configure two or more NTP sources for times to be accurate

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More CCST Questions and Answers FREE, CCST Online Prep Training,
CCST Exam, CCST Study Guide, CCST Flashcards, CCST Quizzes visit:

CCST Practice Test