

CFN Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Why is time-stamping evidence important?

- A) For decoration.
- B) To track evidence chronology and accountability
- C) To confuse the defense.
- D) To make evidence heavier.

2. What should a nurse do if subpoenaed to court?

- A) Ignore the subpoena.
- B) Avoid attending by calling in sick.
- C) Comply and seek guidance if needed
- D) Send a friend instead.

3. Which environment supports trauma-informed care?

- A) A busy open emergency room.
- B) A calm, private room with minimal noise
- C) A hallway for quick assessment.
- D) A space shared with law enforcement.

4. What is a key principle of trauma-informed care?

- A) Ignoring patient history.
- B) Focusing solely on clinical outcomes.
- C) Providing care with awareness of trauma and promoting safety
- D) Assuming trauma is rare in patients.

Answers: 1-B 2-C 3-B 4-C

For More CFN Questions and Answers FREE, CFN Online Prep Training,
CFN Exam, CFN Study Guide, CFN Flashcards, CFN Quizzes visit:

CFN Practice Test