

CLA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Standards are:

- A) Published documents that are designed to provide guidance to help ensure safety, performance, and reliability through the specifications of goods, services, and systems
- B) Prescriptive and an exact set of rules and behaviours that are legally binding
- C) Contain moral and ethical standards of behaviour only
- D) All of the above

2. A Code of Conduct:

- A) Incorporates a large set of specific directives
- B) Incorporates several discreet headings that cover specific instructions. For example, Conflict of Interest, Gifts and Benefits, Confidentiality, etc
- C) Outlines what people "must" do
- D) All of the above

3. Duty of care include:

- A) Professional, personal, organisation, employees
- B) Community, professional, personal, organisation
- C) Organisation, legal, employee, personal
- D) Legal, professional, community, organisation

4. Professional Ethics are:

- A) Values and beliefs around personal religious teachings
- B) A set of rules around standards of employment for professionals
- C) Special rules of conduct adhered to by those engaged in a profession
- D) Moral standards of behaviour determined by society

Answers: 1-A 2-D 3-D 4-C

For More CLA Questions and Answers FREE, CLA Online Prep Training,
CLA Exam, CLA Study Guide, CLA Flashcards, CLA Quizzes visit:

CLA Practice Test