

CNRN Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which of the following does warfarin users not need to avoid?

- A) Ginger
- B) Alcohol
- C) Iceberg lettuce
- D) Kale

2. The ASIA Impairment Scale (AIS) Grade A for spinal cord injury means:

- A) Normal motor and sensory function
- B) Incomplete injury with sensory but no motor function below the level
- C) Complete injury with no motor or sensory function below the neurological level
- D) Incomplete injury with normal motor function

3. The nurse's FIRST action when autonomic dysreflexia is suspected is to:

- A) Administer IV labetalol immediately
- B) Sit the patient upright and search for the precipitating stimulus
- C) Place the patient in Trendelenburg position
- D) Administer sublingual nitroglycerin

4. Before administering IV phenytoin, the nurse must flush the IV line with:

- A) Dextrose 5% in water (D5W)
- B) Normal saline (0.9% NaCl)
- C) Lactated Ringer's solution
- D) Sterile water

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-B 4-B

For More CNRN Questions and Answers FREE, CNRN Online Prep Training,
CNRN Exam, CNRN Study Guide, CNRN Flashcards, CNRN Quizzes visit:

CNRN Practice Test