

LPC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Following up enables a customer to

- A) Tell the counselor of their stability
- B) Inform the counselor of positive developments since termination
- C) No answer is correct
- D) Inform the counselor that negative developments have occurred since termination

2. The post-65 years of life are referred to as:

- A) Ageism
- B) Early adulthood
- C) Middle adulthood
- D) Late adulthood

3. Acculturation refers to the process by which:

- A) An immigrant adopts the language of their host country exclusively
- B) Individuals navigate the acquisition of the values, behaviors, and identity of a new culture while managing their heritage culture
- C) A counselor adapts their therapeutic style to match a client's cultural background
- D) A client rejects their heritage culture to fully assimilate into the dominant culture

4. A rupture in the therapeutic alliance refers to:

- A) The formal termination of the counseling relationship
- B) A strain or breakdown in the collaborative bond, agreement on goals, or tasks between counselor and client
- C) The client's decision to switch to a different counselor
- D) An ethical violation by the counselor

Answers: 1-E 2-D 3-B 4-B

For More LPC Questions and Answers FREE, LPC Online Prep Training,
LPC Exam, LPC Study Guide, LPC Flashcards, LPC Quizzes visit:

LPC Practice Test