

MS Notary Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. When should a notary use a seal?

- A) Only when notarizing documents that require a signature
- B) Whenever notarizing any document, as required by state law
- C) Only for legal documents over $1,000 in value
- D) When the signer requests it specifically

2. Can a notary use an electronic seal?

- A) Yes, if the state authorizes electronic notarization and the seal meets state requirements
- B) No, only ink stamps are acceptable
- C) Only for government documents
- D) Only with special permission from the governor

3. What is credible witness identification?

- A) A trusted third party personally known to both the notary and signer vouches for the signer's identity
- B) A witness who watches the signing process
- C) A court-appointed identity verifier
- D) An online identity verification service

4. Can a notary notarize their own signature?

- A) No, a notary can never notarize their own signature
- B) Yes, for personal documents only
- C) Only with a co-notary present
- D) Only for non-legal documents

Answers: 1-B 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More MS Notary Questions and Answers FREE, MS Notary Online Prep Training, MS Notary Exam, MS Notary Study Guide, MS Notary Flashcards, MS Notary Quizzes visit:

MS Notary Practice Test