

PCP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which is NOT part of the lower airway?

- A) The larynx
- B) The trachea
- C) The epiglottis
- D) The bronchi

2. Transcutaneous pacing is indicated when:

- A) The patient has asymptomatic sinus bradycardia
- B) Atropine fails to resolve symptomatic bradycardia with hemodynamic compromise
- C) The patient has rapid atrial fibrillation
- D) The patient has ventricular fibrillation

3. Albuterol (salbutamol) works primarily by:

- A) Blocking muscarinic receptors in the bronchi
- B) Stimulating beta-2 receptors causing bronchodilation
- C) Inhibiting mast cell degranulation
- D) Reducing airway inflammation

4. A sucking chest wound should be treated by:

- A) Applying an occlusive dressing sealed on all four sides
- B) Applying an occlusive dressing vented on one side
- C) Packing the wound with gauze
- D) Leaving open to allow air equalization

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More PCP Questions and Answers FREE, PCP Online Prep Training,
PCP Exam, PCP Study Guide, PCP Flashcards, PCP Quizzes visit:

PCP Practice Test