

PSI Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which drug is used to reverse opioid overdose?

- A) Naloxone
- B) Flumazenil
- C) Neostigmine
- D) Protamine

2. What is a 'near miss' in the pharmacy context?

- A) A dispensing error that is detected and corrected before the medicine reaches the patient
- B) A patient who nearly missed collecting their prescription
- C) A delivery of medicines that nearly arrived late
- D) A prescription that was nearly written incorrectly

3. A drug with a narrow therapeutic index requires:

- A) Therapeutic drug monitoring
- B) Higher loading doses
- C) Less frequent dosing
- D) No dose adjustments

4. What is the PSI Code of Conduct for Pharmacists?

- A) A set of principles and standards published by the PSI that outline the ethical and professional conduct expected of all registered pharmacists in Ireland
- B) An optional guideline with no legal standing
- C) A code that only applies during inspections
- D) A code only for newly qualified pharmacists

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More PSI Questions and Answers FREE, PSI Online Prep Training,
PSI Exam, PSI Study Guide, PSI Flashcards, PSI Quizzes visit:

PSI Practice Test